

Laksharchana for Lord Sri Venkateswara Sri Lakshmi Temple Ashland MA

(puja by reciting Sri Venkateswara Sahasranamam and Sri Venkateswara Ashtothra)

Saturday, 18 September

Time: 11:00

Laksharchana means reciting the lord names 100,000 times (collectively). During the Laksharchana, Sri Venkateswara Sahasranamam (the 1000 names of Sri Venkateswara) will be chanted by 108 and more devotees as they and our Temple priests jointly do archana to Lord Sri Venkateswara. All puja materials will be provided to sponsors, including a photo of our Temple's Lord Sri Venkateswara for your family's archana, along with a printed booklet with the Sri Venkateswara Sahasranamam in your choice of Smskrtn/(Devnagiri), English, Kan-nada, Tamil, Telugu or Malayalam. At the end of the Laksharchana, devotees can keep the photo of Lord Sri Venkateswara to which they made their archana offerings and the Sahasranamami booklet, and collect their Archana prasadam. Please arrive by 10:15 am to get your booklets and to be seated. If you wish to become familiar with the Sri Venkateswara Sahasranamam before the Archana day, please visit our website www.srilakshmi.org to download a copy. Sponsors are welcome to come early to witness the Abhishekam for Lord Sri Venkateswara at 8:30 am.

By participating in this Laksharchana as a sponsor, you will be able to worship Lord Sri Venkateswara with other members of our community, with the guidance of the priests. Last November, we began with Lord Sri MahaLakshmi Laksharchana and all participants felt the presence and experienced the grace of Lord Sri Mahalakshmi. Since that event, we have seen remarkable progress in the planning of our Temple's Expansion Project. Now we seek the blessings of Lord Sri Venkateswara for starting and completing the Expansion work speedily. We need your generous and sustained support as a Sponsor to fund the Expansion of our Temple
